West Haven Pushes Negro Citizens

The West Haven Redevelopment is accused of willfully and deliberate plotting to push the Negro businessmen out of the Savin Rock section of West Haven.

The Open Gate recently received a complaint from the owner of the Seaview Hotel, Mrs. Clarise Wiss. Mrs. Wiss accused the redevelopment agency, Mayor Morrissey, and the police dept. of making a quick acquirement of all the business property owned by Negroes from Washington Ave. to Campbell Ave. This includes Dadd's Hotel, Dixon's Hotel, Hawkins Hotel, and the Seaview Hotel. Also a few more stands owned by Negroes. Mrs. Wiss said that "this will be the end of most Negro businesses in Savin Rock."

Already Dadd's and Dixon's have agreed to close up operation, though Hawkin's Hotel doesn't agree with the price offered to them for the acquirement of the property, they did not buy a liquor license for 1963.

Mrs. Wiss, however, purchased her liquor license and is trying to get a permit from the police dept., so that out-of-town buses may continue to come into the Rock. She said the buses have been her living for the past 26 years. She said the redevelopment offered her a price for the acquirement of the property 2 weeks ago, March, 1963. She said the price she was offered was not 1/3 of her expectation of what the property is worth. She continued, "They told me that this was the first and final offer and whether I take it or not I would have to vacate the property by May of this year." She said this is impossible and she can't see any reason why the redevelopment would insist on pushing them out in the mid-summer season.

Due to the fact that her business is seasonal, she said this is the only chance she has to make up for the cost of her liquor license, and the cost of moving, especially if being forced to accept the low price offered her would be to stay in business until September.

The Open Gate recently called upon the West Haven Town Hall to acquire more knowledge of the redevelopment and the allegations by Mrs. Wiss accusing the West Haven city government of pushing the Negro businessmen out of the Savin Rock area. The Mayor's office informed us that the situation was completely out of their hands and referred us to the W. Haven Redevelopment Executive Director Mr. Joseph Ierna. Mr. Ierna denied any knowledge of a Negro push-out plot. He stated that the planning of the Savin Rock renewal area was not to push anyone out of any particular race.

He said, "In planning such a large project as this, it takes much study and careful planning." He assured the Open Gate that this particular area was picked for two reasons: "In the first place," he said "the quick acquirement for the property in this area is not just from Washington Ave. to Campbell Ave. as stated by Mrs. Wiss, but actually the section which is to be demolished this summer extends from Washington Ave. to Campbell Ave. on the right side of the street, and from Washington Ave. to Grove St. on the left, which is the beach side."

"The present redevelopment will stop at the Savin Rock Arcade. The only reason they didn't acquire the arcade and the building next to it is because they are large businesses and cost more money than we are allowed to spend at the present. He continued, for the same section the total assessment tax on all buildings combined for the year of 1962, the city of West Haven only received 64 thousand dollars in assessment. This is one of the main reasons this pacticular property was first acquired." He noted, "the difference in the assessment tax at present and assessment tax after the completion of the renewal plan is in their estimation about 10 times the latter amount."

The new planning for the building of this section consists of hotels, motels, a residential section and a shopping center. He continued, "The reason for our quick acquirement is that we want to clean the beach side for prospective viewers. By seeing this renewal project in Savin Rock it will enlighten the spirit of the West Haven Citizens, and our visitors. We are trying to establish more parts of Savin Rock on a year-round business activity instead of seasonal as it is now."

"The money being used for this redevelopment in Savin Rock IS NOT A LOAN FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT." Our intention is to use the high assessment from the new establishments which are scheduled to go up in this section and continue to redevelop Savin Rock until the entire place is a completely new Savin Rock; residential, commercial, as well as a resort.

"The assessment tax on private property in West Haven is very high. However, with the assessment tax of the new establishments, every citizen in West Haven will get a reduction on their privately owned assessment tax," he said.

Mr. Ierna expressed surprise at the change of heart taken by Mrs. Wiss. He presented to us two letters which were sent to his agency by Mrs. Wiss dating back in 1962. He said all seasonal places in that section had been given notification last July.

The acquirement of property did not call for any private owned homes. He said, "most of the businesses in that section agreed for a quick acquirement of the property and especially Mrs. Wiss of the Seaview Hotel.

In one of the letters Mrs. Wiss was informing Mr. Ierna that she already had a good location to continue another business. In the other letter she said a quick settlement would be alright by her. Due to the fact that she is originally from New York and after the settlement expects to return there.

Just what has happened between Mrs. Wiss and the West Haven Redevelopment Agency is not known to us.

Cost of Living Rises, Equals All-Time High

The Consumer's cost of living tied an all-time high in February, pushed upward by higher prices for food and clothing, the Labor Department has reported.

The Consumer Price Index rose by one-tenth of 1 percent to return to the record high of 106.1, first reached last September. This means the market basket of goods and services which cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period now costs $10.61.

In a companion report, the Labor Department said a small decline in the factory workweek caused a slight drop in average spendable earnings or take-home pay of factory production workers.

And because of the rise in the cost of living between January and February, The Labor Department noted, the real earnings or purchasing power of factory workers declined slightly.

Some 2500 metalworking and meatpacking workers will receive a 1-cent an hour hike based on quarterly and semi-annual adjustments under contract escalator clauses.

The net spendable earnings report for February showed the weekly take-home pay of the factory worker with three dependents down to $85.58 with a slight drop in the work week; the worker without dependents received $77.91.

The take-home pay in both cases was down by 20 cents from January but $1.15 per week above a year ago.

'My Clients Were Many Top Officials,' Says Prostitute

Those were the words blurted out by Frances Patricia McEwen after she was caught and arrested on several morals violations, along with her husband Donald, 24, who was charged with enticing or using a female for immoral purposes.

The police moved in on the 21-year-old housewife and her unemployed husband surprising the girl, her husband and a prospective "client" in a vacant construction trailer near the New Haven dump. The pretty little housewife-prostitute was found nude at the time the police swept down, and it was then that she told her story of illicit dates with scores of men in hotels, motels, and even her own home at 6 1/2 Norton St.

She told police voluntarily of the "love for pay" racket and the call girl operation which has been going on steadily for almost two years involving prominent citizens and officials. This operation also stems from the Alden Ave., vice scandal of a few years ago in which eight call girls and 15 prominent businessmen were arrested with small fines and embarresment and shame for penalties.

The beauty told police that her husband forced her into this illegal business because he was unemployed and needed the money. She even told police that her husband had broken her nose and punched and beat her around when she said she wanted to get out of the business. Her husband denies ever hitting his wife, but admitted that he had lined up clients for her, asking only $10 for her favors and temporary love play. It was told that she sometimes made over $100 in one week for her alleged vice-operations.

The call girl went so far as to call off names of many well respected businessmen in the downtown New Haven area as her clients. Also reportedly involved with the "businessmen's girl" was a prominent East Haven politician.

This is an event that makes people wonder just who the dirt of the world really is. Even in the slum areas activities of this sort don't flourish any more readily than they do in the swanky hotels, motels, and beautiful homes and appartments. When one thinks down to the core of the matter there wouldn't be things like this going on if it weren't for the ones with the money who buy into these rackets but are always down on the state and federal government for some idiotic law or so-called improvement in the everyday life. It's the businessmen who go off on trips and conventions and buy sex, love, and dirt, not the people from the slums and lower brackets, but who is constantly accused of illegal happenings? But, what can one do? That is a question for consideration and long thought.

CORE To Picket 3 Local Firms

The New Haven Chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) has been ordered by James Farmer, National Director, to picket 3 downtown stores. Farmer sent a telegram to the Chairman of the Board of Directors of New Haven, Ted Carmichael. In his telegram Farmer stated that:

"King and Shuttleworth asked CORE's support. Urge one-day demonstration for Birmingham Sat., April 20. Please picket Woolworth, Kress Newberry, and Green stores. Lunchcounters are open in Mobile and Huntsville. Birmingham must open now. Imperative that CORE support aspirations of Birmingham Negroes for freedom James Farmer Congress of Racial Equality (CORE)."

CORE plans to picket the Country Market in the near future. However, Mr. Carmichael said they are waiting to see what, if any, Circuit Court action will be taken against the Country Market. 13 Shelton Ave., after being caught by the Consumer Protection Dept. inspector Frank Madar in a recent check up of the sale of unfit meats. The Country Market was caught and accused of using excessive fat and possibly cold blood in hamburger meat.

At the time the commissioner of the State of Connecticut Frassinelli said he has Circuit Court action under consideration.

BEAT AROUND THE CLOCK

BY THE NOSEY REPORTER

NEW HAVEN - That certain young lady who participates in the Sociologist's world is always seen with a white man and never with a Negro. A few days ago she was observed strolling down Edgewood Ave! with a shabbily dressed white man by her side.

She is a highly educated person and is properly dressed every time you see her, yet she belittles herself as much as to walk in the eyes of other citizens with a white fellow wearing dirty green pants and a dirty red (of all colors) jacket.

What is she trying to tell the Negroes? Is she saying that a white man is good enough for her if he does dress like a bum? and a Negro isn't even if he dresses like a king? I am sure the position she holds in the Negro community and the education she has she would be a great tribute to her race if she would only stop kidding herself.

That certain guy who lives on Congress Ave. and owns a big blue car is always seen on Edgewood Ave. near Kensington St. Many of his friends say when it comes to doing something for his family he never has the time, he always uses the excuse that he is busy with his work. And seeing him spend such lengthy hours at the same address, one wonders if his job is ever finished.

The Nosey Reporter has been snooping and has gotten tail wind of a coming marriage. F.P. and S.M. are supposed to get that way. I know of a certain J.P. that will flip. And another D.H. Oh, how could I foget practically every teen age girl in New Haven and the surrounding towns that attend certain social functions every-so-often.

Q.-3 What was the mother-to-be Mrs. J.P. doing driving in a funeral procession the other day? I wonder what hubby says about it? And for that matter what about Papa A?

The certain famous D.H. had better stay on home grounds while it is still safe. Why don't you leave that poor girl alone? Can't you see she's happy without you. After all, you are married. (HA HA)

The Nosey Reporter has noticed lately that what is on in the winter comes off in the summer (or at least warm weather). Remember all the cats with slick looking processes? Well, no more. There seems to be only a few survivors left. They've all taken to the trend, if that is what it is, of having their long tresses cut off. Frankly they all look better that way.

I am beginning to wonder about the new style dresses that are so common this spring. These things that the women and the designers call "Shifts". It's true practically every girl has one, but I wonder about the old saying, "What goes in-in the winter must come out in the summer." I wonder too how many of the misses that goes for.

People are talking about the youths that went on the war path and really hooping it up at the Quinnippac Terrace housing development. The young boys were apprehended Sunday night, three of which were rounded up in a pick up truck. They were: W.J., 17, of Dover Drive, P.R., 15, of James St. who were arrested for breach of the peace, and the other J.B., 18, of Peck St. was arrested for being found intoxicated. A fourth was arrested later for breach of the peace also. He was MP., 18, of Poplar St.

Some people are wondering if the two couples that took a trip to New York City over the Easter holiday had fun. They came back with many a tale to tell. Well, as long as they are back safe and sound it really doesn't matter.

Emergency Campaign to Stop Mae Mallory Extradition Launched

The Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants has issued an emergency call to all friends of civil rights to flood the office of Gov. James Rhodes of Ohio with appeals and petitions against the impending extradition of Mrs. Mae Mallory, one of the defendants in the Monroe "kidnap" frame-up.

This Negro mother of two, was rearrested March 22 in Cleveland after only a week of freedom on $15,000 bail Prior to that she had been refused bail and held in the county jail for over a year while the court fight against her extradition to North Carolina went on.

A deputy sheriff from Monroe, N.C., arrived in Cleveland to take custody of Mrs. Mallory only two hours after her attorney, Walter Haffner, and Clarence Seniors, chairman of the Monroe Defense Committee in Ohio, had secured a 30-day stay of extradition from a Sixth Circuit Court judge in Cincinnati. However, if the appeal which must be filed within that period is not accepted by the court, extradition to a community notorious for its racist injustice stares Mrs. Mallory in the face.

Only Gov. Rhodes' withdrawal of the extradition order which was issued by his predecessor, Gov. Di Salle, can definitely save Mrs. Mallory from the fate awaiting her in North Carolina.

Mrs. Mallory is one of the defendants in the notorious "kidnap" frame-up which stems from the police-encouraged, mob violence of almost two years ago in Monroe against Freedom Riders and local Negroes engaged in a protest against Jim Crow. As the Negro section of town prepared to defend itself against an expected invasion of a Ku Klux Klan motorcade, a white couple which drove into the Negro district was allegedly detained briefly before proceeding unharmed. But out of this incident local racist authorities concocted a "kidnap" indictment against local NAACP leader Robert F. Williams, Mrs. Mallory, Freedom Rider John Lowry, and Richard Crowder and Harold Reape, two local youth leaders of a civil-rights organization. Williams fled possible lynching and finally was given asylum in Cuba. Mrs. Mallory was arrested in Cleveland. Lowry, Reape and Crowder, after being held for several months in Monroe's jail were released on high bail. The prosecutor has however, refused to bring them to trial for well over a year and a half now. They thus are forced to live in a sort of legal half-world--under indictment, but not tried.

"We, the undersigned, are shocked to learn that Mrs. Mae Mallory of New York, after being held in a Cleveland jail for one year without bail, is in imminent danger of being sent south to Monroe, N.C., to face trial on trumped-up and framed-up charges of kidnapping. Mrs. Mae Mallory, a young mother, is not guilty of anything but being a valiant fighter for the rights of the Negro people. We know, and you know, that she will never get justice in Monroe, which is dominated by the Ku Klux Klan. We therefore strongly urge you to save the name of Ohio from national disgrace by using your power to not extradite her and to let her go free."

Petitions may be obtained from: CAMD, 168 W. 23 St., New York 11, N.Y. Petition sheets which have been filled out should be returned immediately to CAMD for forwarding to Ohio.

Harlem Teens Have a Say

Over 3,000 Harlem teenagers used City Hall as the site to demonstrate their support of Harlem's two federally-supported youth service agencies and to urge passage of President Kennedy's Youth Opportunities Bill.

The services now functioning in Harlem are Associated Community Teams (ACT) and Harlem Youth Opportunities Unlimited (HARYOU).

The teenagers gathered on the City Hall Mall, and adults crowded the Board of Estimate chambers to hear Livingston L. Wingate, executive director of ACT, and Dr. Kenneth Clark, chairman of the board of HARYOU, explaining the two agencies and giving progress reports on accomplishments to date. The inside meeting was chaired by Manhattan Borough Pres. Edw. R. Dudley.

Mayor Wagner had officially proclaimed March 28 as Harlem Youth Day. He addressed the outside rally and presented certificates of merit to the ACT's Domestic Peace Corpsmen and to HARYOU's Associates.

Chairman of the Harlem Neighborhood Association (HANA), Rev. Eugene Callender, was the opening speaker at the inside meeting. Representatives of social agencies, churches, and business groups of the central Harlem community, endorsed the programs of ACT and HARYOU and spoke of the needs of the uptown area. Among the speakers were Dr. Edw. S. Lewis, director of the Urban League of N.Y.; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Gregory Mooney, associate director of Catholic Youth Organization; and many, many others of high standings in the different organizations of Greater New York.

The outside rally was opened by singer Abby Lincoln. A resolution passed at the meeting was read by Dr. M. Moran Weston, rector of a church in the area. Outside speakers included William Johnson of the Guardian Society and Angel Rivera, president of the United Youth Republican Club.

The continuation of ACT and HARYOU-organized to fight Harlem's serious juvenile delinquency problems-is contingent upon the passage of President Kennedy's Youth Opportunities Bill in this session of Congress. Passage of this legislation could bring a multi-million dollar grant to the youth of one of a nation's most densely populated Negro communities.

"We cannot stand idly by and let them refuse to give us federal funds to fight juvenile delinquency," said Livingston L. Wingate. "When Harlem is acknowledged as the worst juvenile delinquency areas in the nation and has the highest rate of unwed mothers, infant mortality, admissions to mental hospitals arrests for narcotics violations and by more than three to one the highest rate of high school drop-outs in New York City.

ACT AND HARYOU were organized under the provisions of the President's Committee on Juvenile Delinquency, which is headed by Att. Gen. Robert Kennedy.

HARYOU is developing a plan to improve employment, education, and social opportunities of Harlem's youth.

A second branch of the ACT program is the development of an Urban Service Corps which is organizing community work programs and finding jobs for unemployed, out-of-school youths.

Blond Kills Harlem Friend

Blonde Virginia Heubel, 20, of 100 W. 71st St., a telephone operator, charged with the fatal knifing of 43-year-old Willie Jenkins of 366 W. 53d St., in the home of his estranged wife, Betty, Virginia is being held without bail for action by Grand Jury.

Police said Virginia, who moved to New York from New Jersey two months ago, met Jenkins during the St. Patricks Day parade, March 16. The two, police said, visited several bars before visiting the apartment of his wife.

TAKES HER HOME-Jenkins, police said, reportedly introduced his estranged wife as his sister to Virginia. Mrs. Jenkins, police said, went to the store leaving Jenkins and Miss Heubel in the house. Police said the two continued drinking until Miss Heubel reportedly said she had enough and argued with Jenkins.

Police said Jenkins reportedly handed a knife to Miss Heuble and Jokingly told her to stab him. She allegedly complied to his wish. The woman, police said, fled leaving the body of Jenkins which was discovered by his wife and five children.

Guerillas Train In Latin America

If armed conflict comes in Latin America, it will take the form of sabotage and guerilla warfare. Both the U.S. and the Communists are prepared for a drawn-out, Vietnam-style struggle. The U.S. has stopped sending ships and planes in favor of training Latin Troops in the techniques of guerrilla fighting. Base for the new program is the Panama Zone, where three or four thousand men from almost every Latin country are in guerilla training. The training lasts from five weeks for a simple combat course up to five months for technical courses in weapons and truck maintainence.

Packaging Truth Held Needed To End Chaos

"Truth in packaging" legislation is needed to end "chaos in the retail marketplace," the AFL-CIO has declared in testimony before a Senate subcommittee.

Odd-shaped packages labelled "jumbo," "king-size" and "giant" present a "Tower of Babel" to the housewife seeking the most economical buy, Legislative Representative Clinton M. Fair declared.

Although existing law requires that statements of net weight must be carried on containers, these are often in small type in colors which blend with the packages and in hard-to-find locations, he noted. Once having found the weight, the housewife frequently is "no better off than before" because of the "extraordinary" assortment of weight units, with differences "extending even to fractions of ounces."

AS A RESULT, Fair declared, "it becomes almost impossible to make any ready comparison of the price on one brand against another or of one size package with another, even for the same brand."

The "truth in packaging" bill, sponsored by Sen. Philip A. Hart (D., Mich.), was given strong endorsement also by two Administration officials, Food and Drug Commissioner George P. Larrick and Wilbur J. Cohen, assistant secretary of the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

Cohen said the Administration and he "wholeheartedly endorse" the measure.

Larrick praised a provision which would enable his agency to issue regulations that would have the effect of law to correct packaging abuses. The bill would "facilitate and encourage compliance with commonly accepted standards of honesty in the labeling and packaging of consumer products," he said.

Robert E. Graham of the Owens-Illinois Glass Co., told the Senate Judiciary subcommittee that no regulatory packaging legislation is needed. He said the public is being "served as never before," by products packaged in a variety of convenient containers with pinched waists, pouring spouts, and long necks.

However, Professor Irston R. Barnes of the Columbia University Graduate School of Business told the subcommittee the Hart bill would be "good for the economy and good for business."

Fair said the AFL-CIO has a strong interest in the legislation because families of union members "are concerned not only with improved wage income, but also with what that income will buy."

He said modern packaging has brought "many benefits" including convenience and sanitation. But it has also brought, he emphasized, "uneconomic effects which consumers must pay for-in the form of packaged air," in inefficient shapes designed to maximize advertising coverage, and in the extra cost of storing, shipping and shelving a myriad chaos of different sizes and shapes of containers."

The AFL-CIO, he declared, is not opposed to "attractive and imaginative packaging-on the contrary, we welcome it."

"As consumers we want only to protect our pocketbook at the marketplace without a refresher course in mathematics, the burden of a portable calculator, or the nuisance of a magnifying glass," he said.

THE LADIES NIGHT OUT

The Ladies Night Out which was advertised in the Open Gate to be held in March has been extended until October. The reason for this extension is that the Open Gate Press, Inc. feels that too many affairs are going on in one year and it is developing into quite a large project. However, J. Dyous, editor, Open Gate News said that the Ladies Night Out will be combined with the Open Gate News' 2nd anniversary when the paper will again feature a Connecticut State Beauty Contest and select an Open Gate queen for New Haven and the State.

The editor said the age limit for 1963 will be from 16-25. If you are a young lady and read this article and feel that you are qualified to compete in this contest you may get your entry in now.

All contestants must enter as Bathing Beauties.

OPEN LETTER

I would greatly appreciate your printing this open letter to Alderman Bartholomew Guida, Dem, 14th Ward.

I greatly admire the stand you have taken on flouridation and I want you to know that there are countless others who are behind you in your fight to protect our inherited freedoms.

At stake in this issue is not the benefits or harmful affects of adding floride to our water supply but the rights of the individual which is the most precious right of a free society. We have been slowly but surely giving more and more power to government and there by putting us on the road to the type of state that we are supposed to be opposed to. and when this city goes so far to force the citizens to take medication. whether it wants to or not it is high time we rise up in arms to protect what we and our forefathers fought for.

We need more men like you Mr. Guida in politics, who will fight first for principle before he considers party pressures or personal benefits.

Signed
Yours In Freedom

God's Emancipation Proclamation

The following is a speech broadcasted over WDEE by Rev. Otta Simmat from the Union Temple Church last Sunday. Rev. Simmat gave his speech the tittle, "God's Emancipation Proclamation."

Emancipation, according to Webster's Dictionary, is freedom from BONDAGE, freedom from disability, and/or freedom from DEPENDENCE.

An Emancipation Act passed by the British Parliament in 1892 gave the Roman Catholics of the United Kingdom, especially Ireland, freedom from

Then coming home to our own land we are happy about an Emancipation Proclamation issued by President Abe Lincoln on Jan. 1, 1863, giving freedom to the slaves of the South. This happened 100 years ago, and there are still folks who haven't heard about it.

It is not necessary to talk about Mississippi and the rest of the deep South. God knows Christians everywhere ought to bow their heads in shame that a Christian nation and Christian states in that Christian nation act so much the part of a barbarian.

Here in the North where we fought to make that freedom possible because in our national breasts throbbed the freedom loving soul of 1776, we have not lived up to the hopes our much vaunted Lady of Liberty on Bedloe's Island symbolizes and portrays.

It isn't necessary to think only of our colored brethren when we speak of freedom and the need for emancipation. There is hardly a segment of our life where oppression through the domineering forces of little tin gods does not reach.

To illustrate-where a strong union is entrenched in a manufactory, THEY cry for the blood of the capitalist; and where the unions have not yet reared their haughty head, the manufacturer does not have sense enough to do what he can to prevent that which he considers a catastrophe from befalling his plant. The most arrogant, who can do the best pushing around, are many times in supervisory positions.

In social organizations and Christian societies also, where the spirit of brotherhood should prevail, petty jealousies and squabbles-again engineered by such little shots in heavy armour-ruin the work of years of those who sought to spread the spirit of peace on earth and goodwill to men.

Let's go way back to the garden of Eden. There the devil, through the serpent, fostered a half-truth which robbed mankind of his original freedom.

Then in Egypt the hand of the oppressor was upheld by Satan and the cry of the children of Israel went up to God who said (Exodus 3:9) "I have seen the OPPRESSION." Mark this and mark it well.

Oppression-where ever it rears its ugly head-is of the devil and for anyone to say they want to be neutral at a time like that is tantamount to saying "I am on the side of the devil."

You make your own choice. No one can make it for you. To close your eyes to the injustice done to others because it has not yet reached your door, is VOLUNTARY BLINDNESS. Please remember that often quoted verse from Christ's Sermon on the Mount recorded in ST. MATTHEW, CHAPTER 7, VERSE 12, which reads "Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them." It appears then that emanci-

Protests Against Liquor Store

The Varick AME Zion Church, Charles St. and Dixwell Ave., recently sent a bus load of delegates to Hartford in protest of a package store being established at 237 Dixwell Ave. directly across from the church. The package store has been completed all but getting their license.

The bus load of protesters went to Hartford to the State Liquor Control Commissioner to protest the degrading factors which are always put upon Negroes in their own community.

Rev. Philpot and many other ministers from surrounding churches also went to Hartford for the same cause. Rev. Siler is the pastor of this church, and just how much progress has been made has not yet been revealed. However, we hope to give you a complete story in the next issue.

One spokesman for the protest movement against the establishers of this liquor store said, "Even though the bus trip to Hartford was on Monday the church delegates were joined in Hartford by approximately 150 from other churches in this city who used their own automobiles for transportation.

Stanley J. Palaski, secretary of the commission, said that the application had been rejected and the permittee, Peter C. Sepesko, was notified today. The store, now located at 69 Charles St., near Orchard St., is owned by John Veitch and Paul Massey.

On Monday the commission had held a hearing on the proposed move and drew the largest audience it has had for a hearing in many years. More than 150 persons, led by ten clergymen, came by bus to Hartford, to oppose the move. A petition signed by 300 persons, all in opposition, was presented to the commission.

CORE Pickets In Maryland

Brooklyn CORE chairman, Oliver Leeds, who last month gave his station wagon to field organizers of Greenwood, Miss. vote registration campaign, led CORE and District 65 actionists last week on a test of eating places in Carroll County, Maryland.

The 150 strong New Yorkers travelled in two buses and six cars to Baltimore. There they were met by the Student Non-Violent Action Group from Howard University, and contingents of the Baltimore and Prince George County CORE.

Some 35 places were tested in Westminster, Tareytown, Reisterstown and along US Route 140 in Maryland. The interracial groups were served in two instances, one in Tareytown and another on the highway.

At the American Restaurant in Westminster, five who were refused service sat until they were arrested by police.

The testers visit was anticipated and their marked cars and buses drew loads of attention. In places they circled the testers' parked cars yelling and screaming as they drove. Police used dogs to keep the hostile crowds down.

pation in the ordinary sense has a long way to go before total victory can be proclaimed from the housetops.

However there is another emancipation that is founded on a more solid foundation. This is GOD'S EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION, which concerns itself with freedom in its absolute sense, i.e. the restoring of the freedom man had in the garden of Eden. This is freedom, not of the body which is only the house you live in, but freedom of the real you, your soul, from the bondage of sin, Satan and death.

The ultimate in a state of freedom is perfection in living. The Christian believer is convinced that there is no such freedom nor such perfection outside of God, so his aim is to live so that God may invite him to share HIS freedom and perfection. There is a way to reach this freedom and perfection. We read it in ST. JOHN. CHAPTER 8, VERSE #@, "And ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." This scripture suggests 3 questions:

1. What is truth?
2. How does one arrive at the truth?
3. How does that help us in our search for freedom?

The answer is found in ST. JOHN, CHAPTER 14, VERSE 6, where Jesus Himself says-"I AM the way, the truth and the life."

1. So then Jesus is the TRUTH of Chapter 8, Verse 32.
2. He also proclaims Himself the WAY to that truth.
3. Since Jesus is the ultimate goal-TRUE LIFE-that is where freedom and perfection lie.

ST. JOHN, CHAPTER 8, VERSE 36, then gives us this assurance "If the Son (Jesus) therefore shall make you free, YE SHALL BE FREE INDEED."

That is God's Emancipation Proclamation.

So I say to you-stand and fight where it is a question of right against wrong-where it is a question of freedom against oppression-but forget not your biggest battle, the battle against Sin. If you win that in yourself, you will also always be on the right side of every other battle for freedom.

REMEMBER GOD'S EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION- "IF THE SON THEREFORE SHALL MAKE YOU FREE, YE SHALL BE FREE INDEED."

Mrs. Esther James, Typical Negro

By B. Sharpe

Mrs. Esther Matilda James, 66, Harlem domestic worker who won a $211,500 verdict from ~~a~~ all-white jury last week against Rep. Adam C. Powell is being called a typical Negro by many Harlem citizens because of what she plans to do with her money.

She says, "I'm going to invest the money in property. The Federal government will get a part of it. And I'm going to give a lot for crippled Jewish children. The Jewish people have always been wonderful to me, and I like working for them," she said.

Mrs. James' last comment on what she is going to do with the money is what really aroused the people of Harlem. The first thought in the people's minds is that the elderly woman was awarded too large a sum. And the second is that she is going to give the money to a Jewish organization. As one man put it, "what about the crippled Negro children?" For that matter, what about the crippled Negroes themselves. In more ways than one they are crippled. Everyone knows in many ways. Housing, education, civil rights, and not including the unfortunate ones that are physi cally crippled.

We all know it is a fact that the Jewish people are in a good position to take care of themselves and as many others as they please. It is senseless to give a large amount of money to those who can do for themselves when there are thousands who can do nothing for themselves. I just wonder what Jew or any other white person would give half a fortune to a Negro organization under the same circumstances that Mrs. James acquired her money? It is not being said that none have, but how many do that can.

This whole story is similar to that of Billy Eckstein who gave a very large sum of money to the people of Pakistan. Well that's all well and good, but what of his own people back home who were no more than destitute themselves?

This is exactly what Mrs. James is doing. Right in her own community she can see that there are many things of good interest that she could do with her money. It is people like her that make the Negroes a downcast. I wouldn't be one bit surprised if the Jews and other whites aren't laughing at her for her generousity and in my opinion stupidity.

After being absolutely disgusted with Mrs. James over her decision you have to bear it in mind that it is her money and she can do what ever she wants with it. What would you do if you were to be rewarded with a sum like $211,500? We all wish for money practically every day, but when and if we are lucky enough to get a little further ahead the course that is taken is none too good.

You probably know someone who received money in a large quantity who either threw it away or invested it in some unworthy trust. These people too are like Mrs. James who are representing their race in a fashion that the whites cackle over with relief. Relief because another one is down and out.

The fact remains even if the jury was too severe on Adam Powell he is still guilty, and Mrs. James was awarded the money, even if the sum was too large in the eyes of some people, and all minds are made up and all that others can do is complain.

Conn. News Summary and National Outlook

NEW YORK-The New York City Board of Education has taken the first steps in launching a survey to study itself so that it can find out what it has been doing and how it has been doing. It is costing the New York taxpayers $50,000.

WASHINGTON-The United States and Great Britain have made an agreement under which the British will be allowed to buy the U.S. Polaris missiles to equip and establish an underwater nuclear striking force.

CLARKSDALE, MISS.-"Just having fun" was what the two young men said after admitting that they threw Molotov cocktails at a Negro home where Rep. Charles Diggs, D-Mich., was an overnight guest.

The incident occurred about 2 a.m. when one of the Molotov cocktails-a soft-drink bottle filled with gasoline-crashed through a picture window and shattered on the living room floor. It exploded and caused minor fire damage.

A second cocktail was thrown and landed on the carport next to the house but it didn't explode.

No charges were filed immediately against the two white men.

WASHINGTON-President Kennedy signed an historic proclamation making Sir Winston Churchill the first honorary citizen of the United States. Eighty-eight year old Churchill viewed the ceremonies by relay satellite television while his son Randolph, was on hand in Washington when the President signed the proclamation.

NAACP Labor Secretary Herbert Hill filed 33 complaints of discrimination against government contractors and trade unions last week with the President's Committee on Equal Employment Opportunity accusing the unions and contractors of acting in collusion and maintaining segregated locals and separate racial seniority lines. All were Southern-based unions and companies.

W. Haven to Dump In Negro Section

John Barber, President of the Local Chapter of The NAACP, said the NAACP is investigating numerous complaints and petitions filed by Negro citizens of West Haven of the Allington section. The complaints point out that Mayor Morrissey and the city of West Haven are planning to set up a dump near the Negro community.

The families protes against this and labelled it as a misuse of human rights.

The NAACP has set up a committee and started probing into the situation in order to find any legal clauses that may prohibit the city from setting up this dump in the Negro community, which as the president stated in his words, "the dump would be the most degrading and indescent project that could ever be put upon a human being. He said he is sure that the large area that West Haven covers, they can find a dumping location which will not be in the Negroes back yards."

Just how much progress has been made in blocking this dump the NAACP Pres. admitted that he doesn't know. However, attention of all organizations and other citizens for the sake of human dignity is called upon to send letters to Mayor Morrissey, West Haven Town Hall, requesting that he does not use the Negro community for the city of West Haven dumping zone.

THE HIGH COST OF CARELESSNESS–

87,393 FOREST FIRES IN ONE YEAR!

Seven out of every eight of those fires were caused by man.

It only takes one thoughtless moment to kindle an entire forest —scorching out campsites—and leaving thousands of wild animals without homes or food.

It's up to every one of us to help stop this senseless waste. Do your part. Be careful with every fire. Follow Smokey's ABC's.

Always hold matches till cold—then break them in two!

Be sure you drown all fires out and then—stir the ashes and drown again!

Crush all smokes dead out in an ash tray!

Please! Only you can prevent forest fires
